Readability Note

Your child has learned at least 80% of the words in this story. Reading specialists and teachers recommend that children read text that is not too difficult yet is challenging enough to expand their reading skills. A book is easily readable when a child is able to read 90 to 100% of the words in a book without help. At 80% readability, a child can still easily read most of the text in a book; however, he is also challenged to decode words he hasn't encountered before.

Bumper Cars

Ann and Sam are running to the bumper cars.

Sam is passing Ann's car.

Ann is backing up and bumping Sam's car.

Sam is faster. He is zipping past Ann!

Ann is grinning and crashing into Sam's car. "I am quicker!" Ann yells.

"No, I am faster!" Sam yells.

The buzzer rings. BUZZZZZZ!

“Can’t we play longer?” they ask.
